About Northstar Electronics, Inc.

Northstar was established in the late 1990's. The Company has carried out design and manufacturing contracts for various divisions of Lockheed Martin Corp., including LM MS2 (Submarine Command and Control Consoles), LM Canada (Naval Anti-Terrorism System), LM Aeronautics (Mechanical parts for the P-3 Orion Airplane), and L-3 (Navy Frigate Command and Control Consoles). Northstar also designed, manufactured, and sold its own sonar-based system to commercial customers.

In the past few years, we have worked towards re-establishing the company in the key areas in which it has excelled in the past and, thereby, to grow the company bigger and stronger than it was previously. To that end, we have brought together a team of world-class professionals who are fully dedicated to Northstar's success.
